Introduction

Victoria House is a stunning semi-detached Victorian home offering a blend of period elegance and modern living, located just off the town centre of Knighton. The home offers up to five bedrooms, four reception rooms and offers plenty of space to spread out through the home. The layout is thoughtfully designed over three floors, allowing for a natural flow throughout the living spaces.

The property retains many beautiful period features, such as ceiling roses, coving, skirting boards, doors, windows and verandah to the front which add character and charm, making it a truly unique home. The property has mature gardens that offer a tranquil retreat from the hustle and bustle of daily life. These outdoor spaces are perfect for enjoying sunny afternoons or hosting gatherings with friends and family.

The accommodation comprises: hall, four reception rooms to include living room, dining room, study and snug, five bedrooms, three bathrooms, boot room, utility and pantry.

Property description

The original front door leads through to the hall with engineered oak flooring, original doors leading off to the accommodation on the ground floor and down the hall to the extension at the rear. The original stairs case with pretty wood carvings leads upstairs and then a door and staircase leads down to the lower ground floor that the current owner has converted into further accommodation.

To the front on the right is a study with large bay window overlooking the courtyard garden to the front and a feature original fireplace being the focal point of the room. This could be used a dining space or playroom for families. Across the hall is the living room with a second large feature bay window, oak flooring and a two way fireplace with an inset Clearview multi-fuel stove that warms the living room and the cosy snug the other side. The snug then has two opening that lead through to impressive extension that is now home the kitchen/dining space with Velux windows, roof light and large picture windows overlooking the garden. The space has a vaulted ceiling and underfloor heating, a stable door leading out to the garden and a bespoke wooden kitchen with a range of wall and base units, space for a range style oven and dishwasher. Off the kitchen is a handy utility room with Belfast sink and space and plumbing for washing machine. There is also a further door to the pantry which has shelving. Off the hall there is a door leading to a very handy boot room, perfect for coats and into a wet room with vanity sink WC and shower.

On the first floor, the landing has a window overlooking the gardens and onto Kinsley Wood beyond. There are three double bedrooms all with original sash windows, ceiling coving and doors. the main bedrooms has an ensuite shower room and the main family bathroom is fitted with a three piece suite with an accessible bath and shower over.

From the hall, a door leads to a staircase leading down to a converted cellar creating a whole living space that offers two further bedrooms with windows from the courtyard allowing natural light into the spaces. These could be used as alterative reception rooms and offer great flexibility to the home. There is a handy WC on this floor as well.

Gardens, parking and car port

The property has gardens to the front and rear with parking to the side on the driveway and car port which leads to the shed The front garden is a brick paved courtyard with brick wall and wrought iron railings to the front and the verandah running the front of the property.

To the rear is a large garden with a patio area off the back of the main house and steps leading to a lawned are and then a vegetable patch and green house to the corner. There is an abundance of shrubs and plants along the borders and create a lovely mature garden with loads of colour and wildlife.

Location

The property is located just off the town centre of Knighton (Tref y Clawdd) which is located in Mid Wales, and is a market town within the historic county boundary of Radnorshire, lying on the river Teme, with a railway station on the Heart of Wales line. The Offas Dyke footpath is a 177 mile National Trail footpath that closely follows the England/Wales border. It opened in 1971 from Prestatyn to Chepstow with Knighton sitting at the half way point with a visitors centre. Knighton has a primary school, supermarket, leisure centre and many other smaller independent shops. The larger market town of Ludlow, 16 miles has a wider variety of facilities and hosts the famous Ludlow Food Festival. The larger Spa town of Llandrindod Wells, 18 miles offers a further wider range of facilities.
