Introduction

2 Cross A Dyke is a wonderful stone cottage with a barn like feel that has been created by the current owner to offer one/two bedrooms, open plan loft style accommodation on the first floor with a glazed gable end allowing wonderful views over the Radnor Valley. The property occupies an idyllic position on a no through lane affording privacy and quiet and gardens to the front of the cottage, driveway parking and a further area of garden that could be utilised further.

The accommodation comprises: entrance hall, office, reception room/bedroom, bathroom room, WC open plan loft with kitchen/dining/living and bedroom area.

Property description

The front door leads into the hall with tiled flooring and oak doors leading off to the ground floor accommodation to include the bathroom, home office and second bedroom/reception room. Stairs then rise to the first floor which is where the main accommodations are found with inset spotlights in the ceilings and lovely feature down lights over the stairs and island. This impressive open plan space offers an area for a bedroom to one end, a living area with a multi-fuel stove, kitchen area with a comprehensive range of solid wood units, space for appliances and then a breakfast/dining area to the far end with a vaulted ceiling and all glazed end allowing expansive views. There are windows all down the sides allowing glimpses of the garden and hills beyond and Velux windows down the one side. The flooring is tiled all through this floor and the bedroom to the far end is sectioned off and offers a cosy space for a bed.

On the ground floor you find a very handy home office, with a utility cupboard in the corner with plumbing for a washing machine, a reclaimed stained glass window which adds a lovely feature to the space and allows light to come in from the end room which could be used as a second bedrooms or reception room. It has a stable door out to the driveway, wooden flooring and a WC in the corner. On this floor to the end of the cottage is a bathroom with a white suite with a shower over the bath and a large airing cupboard housing the immersion tank.

Gardens and parking

The property is approached via the lane and leads to a gravelled driveway with parking for 3/4 vehicles and leads up to the cottage. There is a lawned area to the front of the deck which takes you to the front door and runs the length of the cottage. There is an area of gravel that is perfect for a table and chairs to sit and enjoy the space. The is a mixture of plants and shrubs planted around and creates a lovely cottage style garden There is also more ground below the driveway which straddles to the brook and could be utilised further as more garden or space to build a garage/workshop (STPP).

Please note the footbridge and style into the field are for a public footpath that comes over the bridge and then back down onto the lane. The seller ahs advised during the 15 years of living in the property its been used a handful of times.
