Introduction

Finloren Cottage is tucked away in the rolling hills of the Welsh Marches, offering a peaceful slice of countryside living. Surrounded by farmland and views, the cottage sits within the historic parish of Old Radnor, a place known for its medieval church and charming rural character. Just a short drive from the market town of Presteigne, residents enjoy the best of both worlds: the tranquillity of a quiet hamlet and the convenience of nearby shops, schools, amenities, pubs, and cultural events. The area is rich in walking trails and wildlife, making it ideal for those who love the outdoors. The cottage currently offers two bedrooms, living room, kitchen/dining room, utility/store room, bathroom, external home office, gardens and a driveway. The cottage does require renovation and offers an exciting opportunity to create a wonderful home.

Property description

The front door leads through into the hall with doors leading to the ground floor and stairs rising to the first floor. On the ground floor you find a living room with stone fireplace with inset stove and windows to the front and back. There is a utility/store room that is set up as a store room at the moment, has the plumbing to become a utility/boot room or a ground floor bathroom. The kitchen/dining room is to the far end with an inset oil fire range, a range of wall and base units and a stable door leading to the side of the house. On the first floor you find two double bedrooms to either end with windows to the front and Velux to the back. There is a bathroom with a three piece white suite.

Gardens and parking

The property is approached via a timber gate and leads onto the driveway with parking. There is a small enclosed patio area to the side of the cottage with the oil tank to the rear. There is then a second enclosed area with a timber shed (septic tank location) just across from here. From the drive there is an opening through to a large lawned area bordered by mature trees and shrubs and faces South.

Office

There is a very useful office space just off to the side of the driveway and has light and power and a store room to the rear.
