Summary Description

JorgensenTurner are delighted to bring to market this charming ground-floor two-bed Victorian era garden flat perfectly positioned on Dunraven Road standing as a testament to the seamless blend of historical elegance and contemporary comfort surrounding it.

Offered with this 726sqft property is an inviting open-plan kitchen and reception area—the heart of this home—designed for hosting friends nights or enjoying quiet evenings in. The kitchen's modern appeal complements the living area's traditional features, offering the best of both worlds.

The apartment boasts a stylish bathroom featuring a contemporary design that doesn't compromise on style. Traditional architectural elements like bay windows and a cream-colored façade adorned with original brickwork echo the property's historic heritage, while the interior design cleverly incorporates minimalist and contemporary touches, creating a comfortable atmosphere.

Step outside to discover a beautifully crafted patio, complete with wooden decking and a rustic trellis. This secluded garden space offers a peaceful retreat from the city's pace, perfect for relaxation or outdoor entertaining.

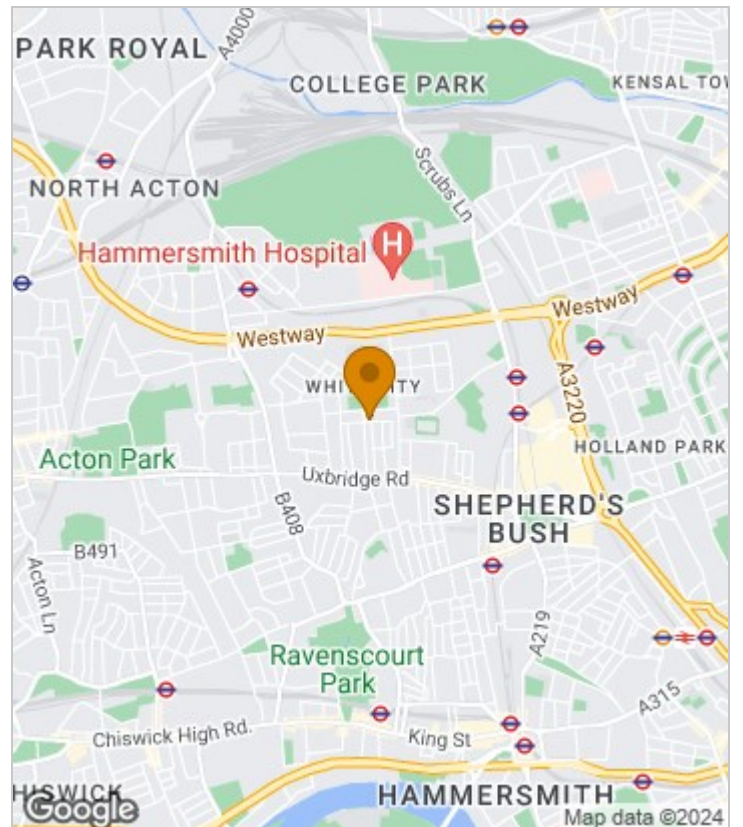

Located near the lively Shepherd's Bush Green, the flat is ideally situated for those seeking a balance between the peacefulness of nature and the buzz of city life. With excellent transport links and a plethora of amenities in close proximity, this property promises convenience and a high quality of living.

Offered with flexible furnishing options, this apartment provides a blank canvas for tenants to personalize, making it an inviting home for those eager to leave their mark on a space rich in character and potential. Available from the beg-May, it represents a unique opportunity to inhabit a piece of London's history.

Council Tax Band D—Hammersmith & Fulham.

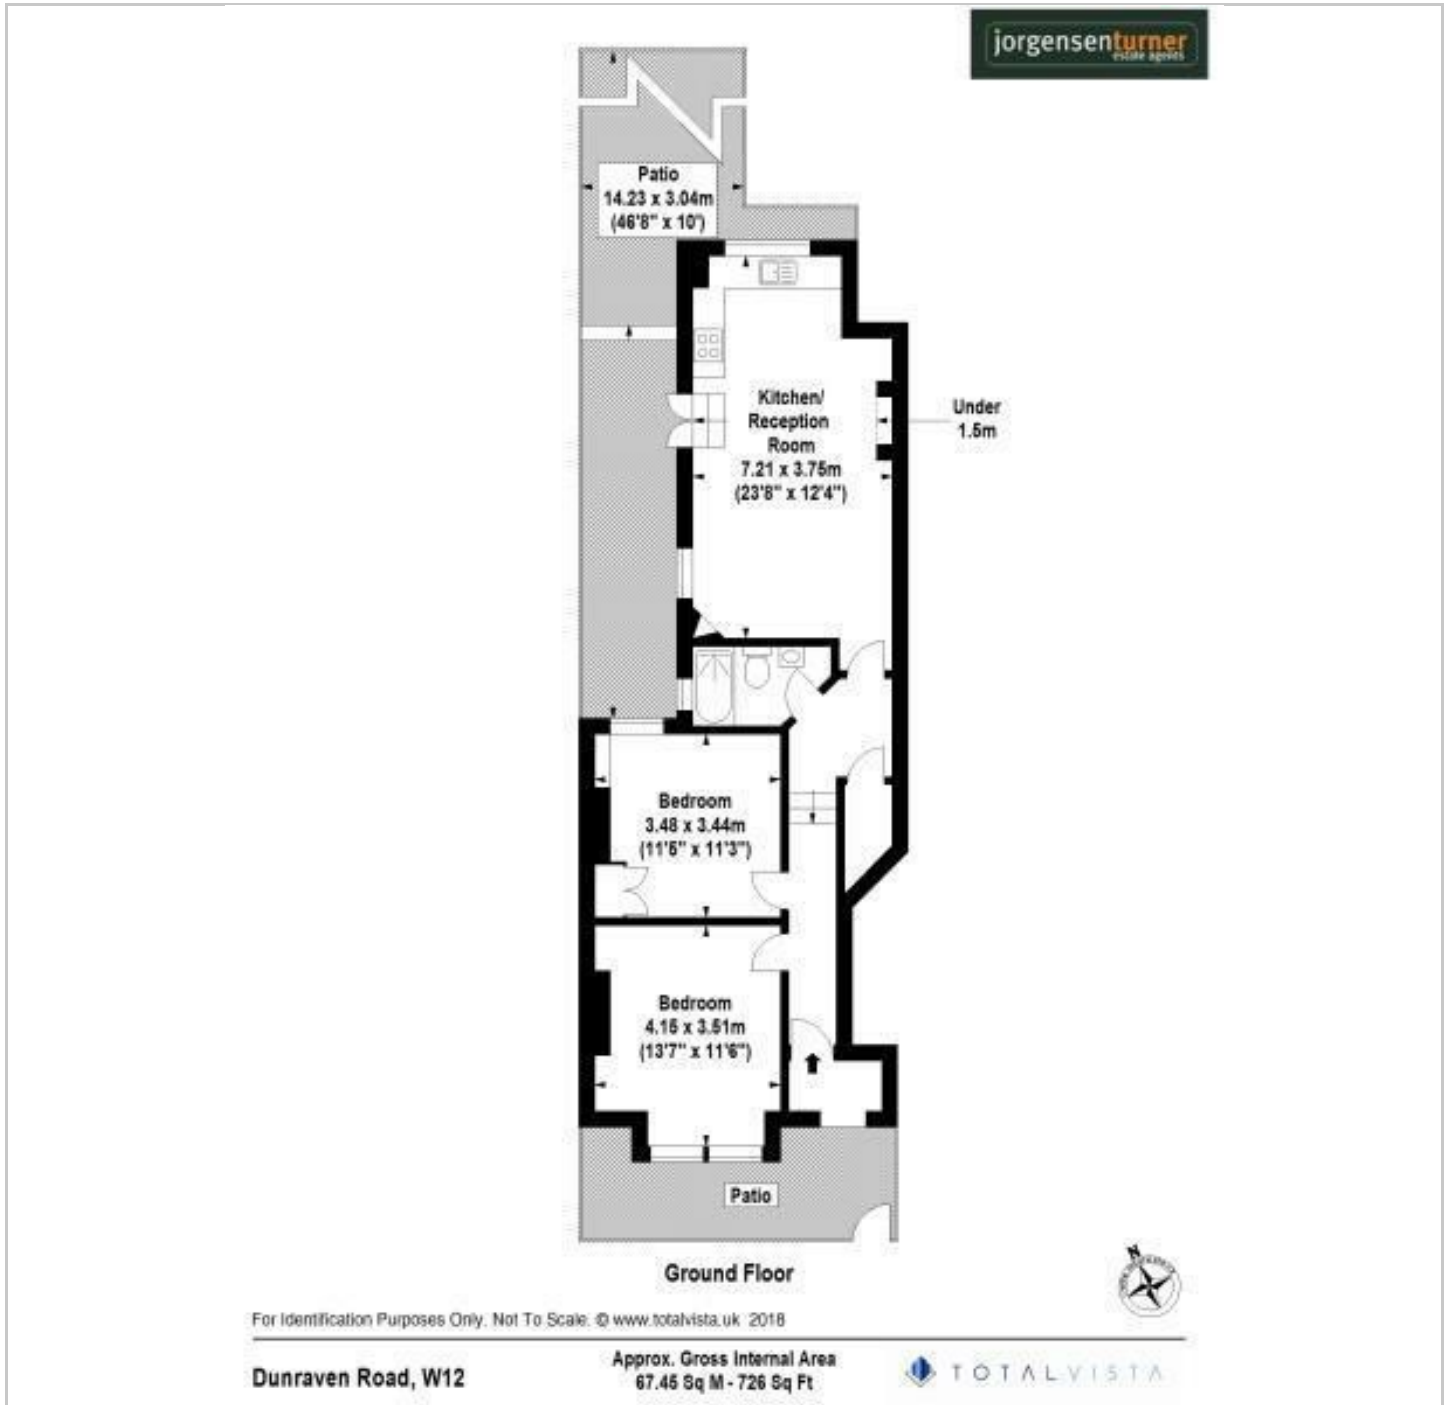

Deposit: One weeks' rent to reserve, with a security deposit of either 5 weeks' rent (for properties under £50,000pa) or 6 weeks' rent (for those over £50,000pa).
