Lewes, the county town of Sussex supports a diverse culture with unique twittens and winding lanes where numerous antique shops, innovative galleries and independent boutiques can be found. Lewes boast many cafés and pub and in many of these you will be able to enjoy a pint of Harvey's the local beer that has been brewed in Lewes since 1790 and is still a private family business nestled in the heart of the town. The historic county town offers an excellent range of gastronomic delights with a plethora of pubs and restaurants spread around the historic landmarks of the Norman Castle and Ann of Cleves House.

The town boasts great sporting facilities including a leisure centre, a tennis and squash club, Rugby club and new state of the art football facilities as well as the famous Pells outdoor pool (the oldest outdoor spring fed freshwater pool in the UK).

Schooling in Lewes is exceptional and there are a range of well-regarded private and public schools offering education from primary schools right through to A levels. The universities of Sussex and Brighton are only a few miles away and can be accessed by road or via the public transport links.

Lewes also benefits from a mainline station offering direct trains to both Brighton and London as well as destinations East and West along the coast.

TRAIN TIMES Brighton 16 minutes, Haywards Heath 16 minutes, Gatwick Airport 31 minutes, London Victoria 65 minutes.
