

An aerial photograph of a large, historic property. The main building is a large, two-story red brick house with a dark roof and multiple chimneys. To the left of the house is a large, winding river. The property is surrounded by lush green fields and dense trees. A tall, thin metal tower stands in the background. A paved area with several parked cars is visible in front of the house. The overall scene is a mix of natural beauty and historic architecture.

Haimwood, Llandrinio, Llanymynech, SY22 6SQ

General Remarks

An exciting opportunity to purchase a country property situated in a picturesque setting adjacent to the River Severn. The property comprises of a 5 bedroom Farmhouse and adjoining outbuildings together with three additional cottages (currently yielding an annual rent roll of £17,400) within a courtyard setting, together with land extending in total to around 5.95 acres with the opportunity to purchase a further 17.79 acres by separate negotiation. The property was run as a successful clay shooting ground for many years until the recent retirement of the owners and could easily be reused for this or other alternative purposes, subject to any necessary planning consents.

Location: The property itself is situated in a truly spectacular location overlooking the meandering the River Severn close to the Shropshire/Powys border, with views towards Breidden Hill and Rodney's Pillar. Although offering a picturesque rural setting, the property is only 1 mile from the popular village of Llandrinio which has a host of amenities including a church, garage & shop, village hall, children's playground, playing fields, tennis courts and a public house. The village is also situated on the B4393 providing a direct link to Shrewsbury (13 miles) and the A483 linking Oswestry (11 miles). Welshpool (11 miles) which also benefits from a train station providing regular links to Wrexham, Chester, Shrewsbury and Cardiff.

Gardens: To the side of the Farmhouse are large lawned gardens which border directly onto the River Severn with views towards Breidden Hill and Rodney's Pillar.

Grounds: In total the property extends to approximately 5.95 acres (2.408 ha) as shown outlined in red on the plan attached. The land was developed by the sellers into a renowned clay pigeon shooting ground and contains a mixture of landscaped grassland and mature native woodlands all of which benefit from frontage onto the council maintained highway, as well as leading onto the River Severn. The grounds offer huge amenity value to the property itself but could also be used for agricultural or equine purposes. Alternatively, they offer huge potential for alternative uses subject to any necessary planning consents.

Additional Grounds: Additional land extending to 17.79 acres (7.2 ha) or thereabouts (outlined in blue on the attached plan) is available by separate negotiation. The land includes some woodland and landscaped grassland which originally formed part of the shooting ground, together with additional grazing land which adjoins the River Severn. This land also has several access points onto the council maintained highway. For further details please contact the Selling Agents.

Tenure: We are informed that the property is freehold. The Farmhouse will be sold with Vacant Possession. The three adjoining cottages will be sold subject to Occupation Contracts details of which can be provided by the Selling Agents

Services: We are informed that mains electric is connected to all of the properties with separate meters for each unit. Mains water is connected to all of the properties. All of the properties (together with the two adjacent residential properties) are connected to a sewage treatment system situated within the grounds. For further details please contact the Selling Agents.

Local Authority: Powys Council, Powys County Hall, Spa Road East, Llandrindod Wells, Powys, LD1 5LG. Tel: 01597 827460

Directions: From Oswestry take the A483 towards Welshpool. Arrive at Four Crosses and take the first exit to the left at the roundabout, you will then reach a mini-roundabout where you should take the second exit to the right. Carry on out of the village and you will arrive at a T junction. Turn to the left for Llandrinio village and continue through the village for around 1.5 miles taking the left hand turn before the traffic-lighted bridge signposted Haimwood and Haughton. Follow this road taking the first right hand turn signposted Haimwood. After approx. 1.5 miles, at the end of a straight, the private drive to the property forks to the right hand side.
