General Remarks

A generously sized three bedroom detached barn conversion situated in a small development of similar properties in this sought after location within the village of West Felton. The property provides well proportioned accommodation throughout, alongside ample off road parking provision and gardens to the side.

There is LPG fired central heating throughout and double glazing. Offering potential for purchasers to personalise the accommodation in line with their tastes and requirements, the property is a most individual addition to the sales market. Early inspection is highly recommended as the property is offered for sale with no onward chain.

Location: The property is situated in the enviable historic part of the village and close to the church. West Felton village is surrounded by picturesque countryside which is in easy walking distance of the property. The village has an excellent range of amenities including village shop, public house and a renowned primary school.

Easy access onto the A5/A483 provides direct commuting routes to the larger towns of Oswestry, Shrewsbury, Wrexham and the Cities of Chester, Manchester and the Wirral to the North, Telford and Birmingham to the South. The train station at Gobowen offers links to Birmingham and Manchester.
