Bowen are delighted with instruction to offer a rare opportunity to rent a characterful detached rural property, in parts dating back to the 16th century, on the fringes of the village of Bwlch-Y-Cibau, Llanfyllin. The property stands in approximately 1 acre of gardens offering a large open lawn, several varieties of fruit trees and around 60 different types of bamboo, creating a substantial wooded area. Further is a large polytunnel and stream situated at the boundary edge, two gravel driveways provide ample parking.

Internally the property is well proportioned boasting a large Kitchen and separate Dining Room, with good size Lounge and Study located in the original part of the house. Upstairs are four double bedrooms, the largest of which benefitting from a walk-in wardrobe and En-Suite, with a further 4-piece family bathroom. We are informed the property is serviced by mains electric and water, with LPG central heating via a new 'Worcester' boiler.

Location: Bryngwyn Cottage, is located on the fringes of the small village of Bwlch-Y-Cibau, with a Public House and Village Hall, the charming market town of Llanfyllin lies approximately 2 miles up the road. The town, surrounded by the rolling hills typical of the Mid-Wales borders, it is an ideal centre for exploring Snowdonia, the Berwyn Mountains and Lake Vyrnwy. Benefitting from a range of local shops, restaurants, hotels and public houses, together with a doctor's surgery and dental practice. The town also has excellent primary and high schools, together with an associated sports centre and Library. A further range of amenities can be found in the nearby market towns of Welshpool (12 miles) and Oswestry (14 miles.)
