General Remarks

NO CHAIN. A charming terraced two bedroom stone and slate built cottage providing modernised accommodation retaining many character features such as beamed ceilings and exposed stonework in a convenient location off the main road with garden and off street parking.

This terraced stone and slate built cottage has been extensively modernised but retains character features such as exposed beamed ceilings and internal stone work. It comprises a lounge with period style open fireplace, dining kitchen with painted timber units incorporating a built-under electric oven and inset ceramic hob, rear hall, utility room and bathroom with corner bath and shower above. Upstairs a landing with space for a desk or wardrobe leads to the two bedrooms. Gas central heating is effected by a "Worcester" combi boiler and PVCu double glazing is installed. Outside there is a flagged forecourt with inset bulb bed. To the rear there is a yard and access to a fenced garden with block and tiled workshop with a cattery/kennel and bin storage area behind. To the side of the terrace there is a PARKING SPACE within a communal parking area. INTERNAL INSPECTION ADVISED.

Location: The property is one of a terrace which has a frontage onto a footpath linking the A541 Wrexham Road and the A550 Hawarden Road. It is situated approximately six miles equidistant between Wrexham and Mold. Caergwrle offers wide ranging amenities including a Railway Station. Abermorddu Primary School is 100 yards away.

Constructed of stone beneath a slated roof with a single storey pebbledash rendered and slated single storey extension to the rear.
