General Remarks

NO CHAIN. An individual mature detached bow fronted two reception room / three bedroom family home with garage and 55' south facing rear garden in a sought after location between Garden Village Shops and Box Lane.

This individual property was built in the early 1950's in a traditional style of brick-faced external cavity walls, since insulated, with full height bow windows to front and rear beneath a hipped slated roof. It comprises a recessed porch; entrance hall and two separate reception rooms with woodblock floors; refitted beech breakfast kitchen with split-level cooker and walk-in pantry; covered side way with doors to front and rear, WC, storeroom, utility room and internal access to the garage. Upstairs an airy landing leads to two double and one single bedrooms serviced by a bathroom and separate WC. The house is fully PVCu double glazed and gas centrally heated from a "Worcester" combi boiler installed in December 2024. Outside a gated drive accesses an attached side garage and lawned front. Gated access to the level rear which is predominantly grassed with a southerly aspect and average depth of 55' (16.76m) being not directly overlooked. NO CHAIN.
