Built by William Wilson for William Wood—a prominent Royalist and Warden of the Sutton Corporation—the manor is a Scheduled Ancient Monument and a striking example of 17th-century architecture. The red brick construction with red sandstone angle dressings and molded plinth evokes the character of the era, while the dramatic drawbridge entrance adds a sense of grandeur.

Internally, the property boasts expansive living areas, with multiple reception rooms that overlook the surrounding moat and beautifully landscaped grounds. Each space reflects the home's rich heritage, with original period features thoughtfully preserved throughout.

Set within approximately 1.5 acres of mature gardens, the property provides an idyllic and private outdoor setting. In addition to the formal grounds, the sale also includes a further 1-acre paddock—ideal for those with equestrian interests, or simply looking for extra space for recreation or hobby farming.

While carefully maintaining its historic character, the house has also been updated with modern amenities to ensure a comfortable lifestyle. It successfully combines the elegance of a bygone era with the convenience of contemporary living.

Located within easy reach of local amenities in Minworth and Sutton Coldfield, and with excellent transport connections to Birmingham and the wider region, Peddimore

Hall Farm is ideally positioned for those seeking countryside tranquility without sacrificing accessibility.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire an extraordinary period home—rich in history, full of character, and now offered with both landscaped grounds and a versatile paddock, all in an enviable and secluded setting.
