INTRODUCTION

Guilty Hall offers a rare opportunity to purchase a modernised yet traditional country property in a secluded, central village location within the heart of the Yorkshire Dales.

The property has been well maintained and offers spacious accommodation which is complemented by generous gardens and grounds including riverside frontage.

DESCRIPTION

Guilty Hall is a traditional stone-built country property which retains a range of character features including wooden floors, exposed beams, fireplaces and a stone staircase. The property is in good order and has been well maintained offering comfortable accommodation across two floors.

The property is entered via a welcoming entrance hall which leads through into the kitchen diner. This large, light room benefits from underfloor heating and features a quality oak fitted kitchen with central island complemented by leathered granite worksurfaces. There are a range of fitted appliances including double oven with microwave, dishwasher, fridge and a gas hob with extractor hood. The Belfast sink has waste disposal and a stainless-steel sink within the island features a boiling water tap. There is ample space for a family dining table.

Leading through there is a good sized living room with oak floor and exposed beams which features a multi fuel stove set within a stone surround. There is a door leading out to the front which is currently not in use.

Also, on the ground floor is a sun room providing direct access out to the garden and which enjoys a stunning outlook of the church and surrounding hills. There is also a utility room with WC and basin, a snug with a feature fireplace and stone flagged floor, a home office, a pantry with stone shelving, a useful under stair cupboard and a workshop.

To the first floor there are four bedrooms, two of which have ensuite bathrooms, and a house bathroom. The principal suite also has a dressing room and enjoys a dual aspect.

Externally the property is complemented by a good-sized cottage garden which is set on different levels with areas of lawn, raised flower beds, rockery style garden, mature trees and patio for seating. To the west of the property is a small paddock which is ideal for chickens or exercising dogs. The land and the gardens run down to the river where there is an abundance of wildlife. Uniquely, there is a foot bridge over the river which leads into the heart of the village. This is private and is only for Guilty Hall's use.

To the other side of the property is an orchard area which is well stocked with soft fruits and apple and plum trees.

Usefully, a short walk from the property is a detached single garage which provides excellent storage and would fit one small car or motorbike if required.

The property will suit a number of buyers and early viewing is advised to appreciate the nature of the property on offer.
