SITUATION

Hawes 1 mile. Sedbergh 15 miles. Leyburn 16 miles. Ingleton 17 miles. Kendal 26 miles. Northallerton 35 miles.

Calvert's Nook is pleasantly situated in the village of Gayle, which is 1 mile outside of the market town of Hawes, in the heart of the Yorkshire Dales National Park. Hawes offers a range of shops, cafes, and four public houses as well as the famous Wensleydale Creamery.

The location is within commuting distance to a number of nearby market towns and there is also a railway station at Garsdale which has a regular service to Leeds and Carlisle.

DESCRIPTION

Calvert's Nook is an attractive stone built cottage located in the centre of Gayle. The property has been occupied as a holiday let for a number of years but would also be well suited to full time living.

The property is entered into via a welcoming inner porch which leads into the living room. The living room has an impressive inglenook fireplace with log burning stove, dual aspect windows make it light and airy with ample space for a small dining table. There is a well equipped kitchen with a stable door leading out to the patio garden. The kitchen features a good range of wall and base units complemented by appliances including a fridge, a freezer, a dishwasher, and an oven and hob. There is a small breakfast bar and a cupboard housing the water cylinder.

Also, on the ground floor is the house bathroom. This features a WC, basin and bath with electric shower over. There is also some useful shelving.

To the first floor there are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, each with a built in cupboard and a third box room. The bedrooms enjoy a nice outlook across the village and open countryside to the rear.

Externally the property is complemented by a patio garden which is adjacent open fields and provides a relaxing area with space for a table and potted plants. There is no parking with the property, however there is ample safe street parking nearby.
