Usefully, accessed via the reception hall is access into the attached garage which has been converted to offer a workshop. This could readily be converted back to a car garage for additional parking. There is also a rear porch which is currently used as a gym and leads out to the gardens.

The gardens wrap around the property and a feature a mix of lawn, flower beds, borders and mixed trees and shrubs. They are enclosed by walled boundaries and there is ample patio and a decked area from where to enjoy the stunning views of Penhill and Mid-Wensleydale.
