Thirn is a small rural village conveniently situated mid-way between the thriving market towns of Bedale, Masham and Leyburn in this very picturesque part of Lower Wensleydale.

The local is rural yet accessible with a number of facilities and amenities available in the nearby towns of Bedale, Masham and Leyburn including shops, cafes, pubs and restaurants together with primary and secondary schools and doctors' surgeries. The location is also convenient for commuting with the A1(M) providing access the larger centres of Harrogate, York and Teesside.

DESCRIPTION

1 Chapel View Cottage is an attractive stone built semi-detached character property centrally situated in the village of Thirn. The property is very well presented to exacting standards and had been well maintained offering flexible family accommodation across two floors. The property is fully double glazed and benefits from oil fired central heating.

The property is entered into via a useful boot room with utility area. This is plumbed for a washing machine and tumble dryer and has a ceramic sink set within the wooden worktop. Leading through the inner hall there is a cloakroom with WC and basin to the left and doors providing access into the kitchen and dining room to the right. The kitchen diner features a good range of wall and base units complemented by oak worktops. There are integrated appliances including a dishwasher and Range style cooker with space for a fridge freezer. A central island provides additional storage and seating. The living area has an oak floor and feature fireplace with French doors overlooking and leading out to the garden. Completing the ground floor is a dining room which has a log burning stove and also has French doors leading out to the garden. This could be used as a sitting room if preferred.

To the first floor there are three double bedrooms and a house bathroom with WC, hand basin, bath and shower cubicle. The larger bedroom features a walk-in dressing room.

Externally the property is complemented by generous gardens to the rear and side of the property. These feature a large lawn, raised flower beds and a raised patio overlooking open fields to the rear. Usefully, the outbuildings have been tastefully converted to provide a guest annexe or entertaining space with a living room with kitchenette together with a shower room, and a home office. This may be suitable for guest accommodation but also a games room or play room. To the front there are raised flower beds and a path leading to the front door. There is a gravelled parking area for one vehicle and on street parking available.

Overall, 1 Chapel View Cottage offers a unique opportunity to purchase a characterful village cottage and guest annexe which is well appointed with generous gardens and parking.
