SITUATION

Hawes Market Place 1-minute walk. Sedbergh 15 miles. Leyburn 16 miles. Ingleton 17 miles. Kendal 26 miles. Northallerton 35 miles. Main Railway Line at Garsdale 7 miles.

Hawes is a popular and thriving market town within the Yorkshire Dales National Park. The town benefits from a good range of independent shops, cafes, pubs and amenities including the famous Wensleydale Creamery.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises is a spacious first floor apartment with access via an external stone staircase. It needs refurbishment but offers a blank canvas for a buyer looking for a project or business opportunity with the shop below. The property has oil central heating and enjoys views across the town to the front with views of open countryside at the rear.

The property is entered into the open plan kitchen with dining area which has a range of units and space for appliances with a dual aspect to the front and side. This leads to a living room with open fire and traditional alcoves, two double bedrooms, one of which with fitted wardrobes and a house bathroom with electric shower over the bath. Usefully, there is a utility room with plumbing for a washing machine which has also been used as an office in the past and could be used as a third bedroom if required. There is a second floor with access via drop down ladder into a storage room.

The below former Joiners Workshop briefly comprises a large ground floor workshop area together with a useful cellar, which is used for storage. The property is entered into through a set of large double doors, which leads to the main workshop area which benefits from water and electric. There is also an office space to the rear and a WC.

Below the workshop is also a very useful cellar which is used as storage and also stores the boiler and oil tank. Although the property has been used as a joiner's workshop, it could but used for a number of other uses and also converted to create a ground floor apartment (subject to obtaining planning consent). Please note, the fixed joinery equipment is included in the sale.

Externally, the property does benefit from off road parking together with space for potted plants.
