DESCRIPTION

The Old Reading Room is an attractive detached house situated in the centre of West Witton. The property was built in the 1860s and was used as the village reading room. It has been refurbished and maintained to a high standard with quality fixtures and fitting throughout and it is currently run as a successful holiday let. At the far end of the room is a sitting area with two sets of tri-folding doors leading out to the gardens, and a double sided log burning stove set within an exposed stone chimney breast. Completing the ground floor there is a utility room to the rear of the property which is plumbed for a washing machine, has additional storage units and a cloakroom.

An impressive oak and glass staircase leads up to the first floor there are two double bedrooms with high quality ensuite bathrooms. They each have a fitted wardrobe and enjoy views across the village.

Externally the property is complemented by a good sized private and secluded rear garden which features a patio, flower borders, a mix of established shrubs and trees and a delightful stream which runs along the southern boundary. There is a pergola covering a hot tub and a storage shed. To the front there is ample parking for a number of vehicles together with a graveled area to the side.
