SITUATION

Hawes 1 mile. Sedbergh 15 miles. Leyburn 16 miles. Ingleton 17 Miles. Kendal 26 miles. Northallerton 35 miles.

Appersett is a small rural hamlet just a short drive or walk from Hawes. Hawes is a popular market town within the Yorkshire Dales National Park which offers a range of shops, cafes, and four public houses as well as the famous Wensleydale Creamery.

The location is rural yet accessible for the larger centres of Sedbergh, Kendal and Northallerton. There is also a main railway line at Garsdale with regular trains running to Leeds and Carlisle.

The location is peaceful adjacent open fields to the rear with red squirrels often seen in the garden and locality.

DESCRIPTION

The Barn briefly comprises a stunning and substantial family house which stands well at the West End of the village. The property has been beautifully updated and maintained throughout with a former commercial garage being incorporated into the accommodation in 2016.

The ground floor is entered into via the dining room which has a multi-fuel burning stove and features wooden flooring running throughout. There is a modern kitchen diner with a granite topped central island which features a good range of fitted wall and base units which are complemented by oak worktops. There are appliances including a Range cooker, integrated dishwasher and space for a freestanding fridge freezer. Usefully, just off the kitchen is the utility area with a separate ground floor shower room and a separate boiler room.

Completing the ground floor there is an impressive living room with vaulted ceiling with exposed beams and a mezzanine above which is used as a home office with bespoke oak storage. This room is dual aspect and features a wood burning stove. There is also a ground floor bedroom with an ensuite shower room which is perfect for guests.

To the first floor there are two further double bedrooms, one of which has fitted wardrobes. The modern house bathroom completes the accommodation and comprises a WC, basin and bath with shower over.

Externally the property is complemented by generous gardens to the side and rear. There is ample lawn, raised flower and vegetable beds, trees and shrubs which are all enclosed by walled boundaries. The gardens provide an excellent space for relaxing and enjoying the wildlife including red squirrels. There is ample parking on the graveled driveway with a single garage providing additional covered parking or excellent storage.

Uniquely, the property does have the benefit of planning approval on the west side for a two storey extension to create two further ensuite bedrooms. The property is therefore very suitable for a growing family, those with dependent relatives or those wishing to run a B&B business (subject to necessary consents being obtained).
