Sat off Locks Road, in a gated development, this penthouse apartment in Paxton Court is the perfect pied a terre, offering very spacious accommodation all on one level. Just a half mile stroll from the Locks Heath Centre and Waitrose, this is a super convenient spot with the X5 bus stop just out on Locks Road to take you to Southampton or Fareham. There is a designated parking spot to the front of the block with a number of visitor spaces also available.

Take the lift, or stairs, if you’re feeling energetic, straight up to the top floor, the landing is just for you. The reception hall offers plenty of space for furniture and greeting guests, access to all the rooms and two built in cupboards, one housing the Vaillant gas combi-boiler which was fitted in 2019.

Spanning the depth of the apartment the open plan living space is triple aspect, so beautifully light and bright. The room is a T shape offering separate areas for sitting and dining as well as the kitchen, which has quality integrated appliances and granite worksurfaces. There is a separate utility room thus keeping the noisy appliances away from the living room. Loft access with a ladder leads up into a boarded room in the room, giving lots of lovely storage.

Located at the far end of the apartment you’ll find bedroom three, an L shaped room as well as the primary bedroom. This is a fabulous size room, and with the large walk in wardrobe we hope you won’t be short on hanging space. The ensuite is fitted with a five piece suite, comprising a double shower, w.c., corner bath and twin wash basins.
