Description

Driving into the park you will notice how tidy and well maintained it is, there is an on-site manager to keep things running smoothly. This mobile home is located in the centre of the park adjacent to the parking area. There is a dedicated parking space alongside the property and steps with a balustrade leading up to the entrance door which opens into the large hallway. There's a good sized storage cupboard, also housing the boiler.

The L-shaped living room is triple aspect with a feature fireplace as a focal point, there is plenty of space for a full sized dining suite and open access to the kitchen. The kitchen is well fitted with a range of modern cream shaker style wall, larder and base units with integrated appliances. There is rear access leading out to the back garden area with shed.

Off hallway you'll find the two bedrooms and bathroom. The main bedroom spans the width of the home and has fitted wardrobes to one wall and an ensuite shower room. The second bedroom is a small double, again with fitted wardrobes. The main bathroom has a double end bath.

Hamble Park is managed by Berkeley Parks with a monthly pitch fee of £287. There is an individual mains gas supply with metered electric and water supplied via the site. The site is strictly for residents over 50 years of age, one cat or dog will be considered. There is no forward chain and with no solicitors required to complete the transaction if you have the cash you could be moved in in no time at all.
