Opportunity to purchase a rare 3 x bedroom garden apartment on several levels. The apartment is situated opposite the Church and grounds at the beginning of Harlech Rd and enjoys the character aspects.

The accommodation is entered from a private ground floor door to the side of the property.

Unique features within the accommodation include a limestone fireplace, 2 x log burners, Distinctive bespoke bookshelves in two reception rooms with concealed lighting, and a herringbone floor to the sitting room.

In addition, underfloor heating, plantation shutters and powder coated black steel, glazed doors separate the Lounge from the Dining room / kitchen. A useful study overlooks the Church to the front, whilst the sitting room enjoys underfloor heating and feature leaded light windows.

The bathroom has a claw foot bath and there is a useful utility area on the landing between the second and third floors.

Bedroom 1- also enjoys dual aspects to the front and rear.

The outside space is a bonus in this property - having a low maintenance, enclosed decked garden with a pergola. Parking is available on the drive to the front.
