LOCATION

A stunning example of a substantial period residence originally constructed in 1863 for a director of Lytham Pier and going on to become part of the Lowther and Fairhaven College for Girls and is a locally listed property. This end of mews family home has been in the same family for over 50 years and offers spacious accommodation with a wealth of period features, including high ceilings, deep bays and ornate corning. Set back from Church Road in the heart of Lytham's Conservation area, within yards from Lytham's tree lined shopping facilities and amenities. Together with Lytham Green and Lowther Gardens, both a short stroll away. An internal and external inspection is strongly recommended to appreciate what this property has to offer including an indoor Swimming Pool, large cellars, garage and out buildings.
