LOCATION

Wrea Green is widely regarded as one of Lancashire's most picturesque villages, offering a peaceful semi-rural lifestyle. At its heart lies a traditional village green, one of the largest in the county, complete with a cricket square and duck pond, all set within charming surroundings that have earned the village multiple Best Kept Village awards.

Local amenities include a village store, a highly regarded primary school, a welcoming public house, and a selection of cafés and restaurants. The neighbouring town of Kirkham provides further conveniences, including the prestigious Kirkham Grammar School.

Wrea Green is ideally situated just 10 minutes from Lytham St Annes and 15 minutes from Preston, making it perfect for commuters. Excellent transport links are available via the M55 motorway at the nearby Clifton junction, offering easy access to the wider North West region.
