STEP INSIDE

Step through the double doors from the courtyard into a welcoming entrance hall, where you're immediately drawn toward a graceful archway that frames views of the garden. This space also connects to a practical utility room on the ground floor.

The heart of the home is a dramatic open-plan living area, where soaring ceilings and exposed beams evoke the charm of a converted barn, balanced with sleek, modern finishes. Rich herringbone wood flooring runs throughout, adding warmth and continuity. The kitchen is designed for both style and function, with garden-facing windows and doors that invite natural light and outdoor access. Cabinetry lines two walls, offering generous storage and housing integrated appliances including ovens, a warming drawer, and a large fridge-freezer. Elegant granite surfaces wrap around the space, including a central island fitted with a contemporary hob and discreet extractor system.

Flowing from the living area is a distinctive gallery space, featuring custom sliding doors that open onto the terrace and garden. Decorative wall panelling adds character, and a side door leads to the plant room for easy access.

The utility room is thoughtfully arranged with cabinetry and worktops on both sides, incorporating built-in laundry appliances and a stylish brass sink. Subtle lighting and ventilation complete the space.

Upstairs, the mezzanine offers a striking vantage point over the living area below, with a glass balustrade and skylight enhancing the sense of openness. From here, doors lead to several bedrooms.
