

Holmlea is an immaculately presented and well-proportioned two/three-bedroom detached house situated in the much sought-after conservation village of Bowden which is only a short drive from the Borders Town of Melrose, or the village of St. Boswells, and around five and a half miles from the Borders Railway, which runs from Tweedbank to Edinburgh.

Architecturally designed, with fabulous rural views, the property occupies a large plot with charming garden ground surrounding it with plentiful private parking to the front.

Internally, the property lies across three levels and comprises two/three bedrooms, an ensuite bathroom, a further bathroom, a sitting room, a dining hall, a breakfasting kitchen, a utility room and a cloakroom/wc which could be reinstated as a shower room. Offering deceptively spacious accommodation which benefits from good storage throughout, including attic space there are feature windows throughout creating a bright and welcoming home, along with gas central heating and double glazing.

Externally, there is a large gravel sweep to the front of the integral garage, leading to an attractive garden bounded by beech hedging and drystone walls. With lawn to two sides, the borders are well stocked with specimen roses adorning the beds. A large patio area, accessed from the house provides an excellent space for informal entertaining.

Edinburgh is easily accessible via the A68, with most Border towns readily available from this central location, along with the aforementioned Borders Railway.
