ASTIN'S

A deceptively spacious second floor apartment in this prestigious block on the West Cliff which enjoys sea and Abbey views. The property has a well fitted kitchen/diner, generous bathroom with shower, 2 bedrooms, one a large master bedroom with Sea views and one double room with access to the private balcony, the balcony offers exceptional Sea Views and is a little haven to sit and watch the world go by. This block has a lift serving all floors and a grand staircase leading up to each floor, with half-landings having windows and retained period architectural features. Being a short walk from all the tourist amenities and above the hustle and bustle of the holiday trade, this is an ideal second or holiday investment property and early viewing is recommended to avoid disappointment.

Rules on letting this property

Properties can be let if they have an energy rating from A to E.

You can read guidance for landlords on the regulations and exemptions (<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/domestic-private-rented-property-minimum-energy-efficiency-standard-landlord-guidance>).

Energy rating and score

This property's energy rating is E. It has the potential to be C.

See how to improve this property's energy efficiency.

The graph shows this property's current and potential energy rating.

Properties get a rating from A (best) to G (worst) and a score. The better the rating and score, the lower your energy bills are likely to be.

For properties in England and Wales:

the average energy rating is D
the average energy score is 60

The energy efficiency rating is a measure of the overall efficiency of a home. The higher the rating the more efficient the home is and the lower the fuel bills will be.
