Situation

Enjoying a pleasant rural location along Capel Iwan Road being within easy reach of the pleasant market town of Newcastle Emlyn. The town offers a good range of local services and amenities which cater for all day to day needs and briefly includes numerous shops, primary and secondary schooling, leisure centre, post office, cafes, public houses etc. Carmarthen is considered the administrative town of the county and lies within a 20 minute car journey and provides a comprehensive array of commercial, educational and recreational facilities together with excellent rail links and road connections to the larger towns of south Wales. The M4 connection at Pont Abraham lies a 20 minute drive from the town of Carmarthen. In addition the stunning scenery along Cardigan Bay coast with its several popular sandy beaches is within a 30 minute car journey of the farm.

Directions

From the direction of Cardigan, take the A484 roadway out of the town. As you enter the town of Newcastle Emlyn take a right hand turning signposted 'Capel Iwan', continue on this road passing the leisure centre and the secondary school on your left hand side, taking a left hand turn signposted 'Capel Iwan'. The farm will be seen shortly on the right hand side.

Description

Blaengwyddon Fawr comprises a fine example of a livestock farm and extends to 129.51 acres or thereabouts in total. Enjoying a pleasant rural setting yet very accessible to town facilities. Within the homestead lies a detached two storey farmhouse of solid stone walls under a slated roof with the original part dating back to 1767. The farmhouse has been extended to provide a substantial family home offering 4 bedroom accommodation, although some selective upgrading is now required.

The farm buildings are nicely positioned within the homestead and are ideally suited for livestock purposes. Divided by a council-maintained roadway the land is mainly level to gently sloping and laid to pasture being suitable for both grazing and cropping purposes.

The sale of Blaengwyddon Fawr offers an excellent opportunity to acquire a standalone or second unit, which is described in more detail (with approx. dimensions only).
