

Penbanc, Glanrhdyd, SA43 3PG

£995,000

An exceptional rural retreat offering an idyllic countryside lifestyle, conveniently located just a short drive from the Cardigan coastline and town. This charming smallholding features a beautifully presented three bedroom farmhouse alongside a detached two bedroom cottage, both granted full residential use.

Set within approximately 42 acres, the land comprises mainly productive grazing fields complemented by a section of mature native woodland and a natural stream, adding to the property's character. The holding benefits from extensive, versatile outbuildings and barns, well-suited for livestock, machinery, or a range of agricultural purposes. In addition, a traditional stone outbuilding offers exciting potential for conversion, subject to the necessary consents.

Enjoy complete privacy down your own long driveway, with no immediate neighbours. A rare opportunity not to be missed—early viewing is highly recommended!

Situation

The property enjoys an enviable setting within the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park, tucked away along a quiet country lane around five miles from the historic market town of Cardigan and a similar distance from the picturesque coastal village of Newport. Just three miles away lies the stunning Pembrokeshire coastline and the nearest beach at Ceibwr Bay, with countless other sandy beaches and secluded coves to explore nearby. Newport offers a beautiful stretch of sandy shoreline and a popular golf course, as does Poppit Sands. Cardigan itself provides a superb mix of independent shops, larger retailers, schools, dining options, and recreational facilities, including a golf course. The location is also convenient for commuting to Fishguard, Narberth, Newcastle Emlyn, and Haverfordwest, while the M4 motorway begins at Carmarthen, roughly an hour's drive away.
