SITUATION

Llanychaer is a popular Rural village which is situated 2 ½ miles south east of the Market Town of Fishguard.

Llanychaer has the benefit of a Public House, a Chapel and a Church. The River Gwaun is within a 150 yards or so of the Property and is renowned as a good Salmon, Sewin (Sea Trout) and Trout River.

Fishguard being close by, has the benefit of a good Shopping Centre together with a wide range of amenities and facilities including Secondary and Primary Schools, Churches, Chapels, a Building Society, Hotels, Restaurant, Public Houses, Cafes, Take-Away's, Art Galleries, a Cinema/Theatre, Post Office, Library, Supermarkets and a Leisure Centre with Swimming Pool and Tennis Courts.

Fishguard Harbour being close by, provides a Ferry Terminal for Southern Ireland and in addition, there is a Railway Station.

The North Pembrokeshire Coastline at Aberbach, Dinas is within 3 miles or so and also close by are the other well known sandy beaches and coves at Pwllgwaelod, Cwm-yr-Eglwys, Aberfforest, Aber Rhigian, Cwm, The Parrog Newport, Newport Sands, The Parrog Goodwick, Pwllcrochan, Abermawr, Aberbach, Abercastle and Porthgain.

There are attractive walks of one to twelve miles in length which you can start from Llanychaer without ever getting in the car. Along the riverbank, up the hills or along the valley, it is a walker's paradise, and the Pembrokeshire Coastal Path and spectacular Preseli Hills are only a short drive away. Pony trekking and hacking facilities are also available.

The County and Market Town of Haverfordwest is some 15 miles or so south and has the benefit of an excellent Shopping Centre together with an extensive range of amenities and facilities including Secondary and Primary Schools, Churches, Chapels, Banks, Building Societies, Hotels, Restaurants, Public Houses, Cafes, Take-Away's, a Post Office, Library, Supermarkets, a Leisure Centre, a Further Education College, The County Council Offices and The County Hospital at Withybush. A scenic road takes you in half an hour to Narberth just the other side of the A40, a small town with many interesting features and independent shops.

There are good road links from Fishguard along the Main A40 to Haverfordwest and Carmarthen and the M4 to Cardiff and London as well as good rail links from both Fishguard and Haverfordwest to Carmarthen, Cardiff, London Paddington and the rest of the UK.

Hill Side is situated in an elevated location within 50 yards or so of the centre of the village.

DIRECTIONS

From Fishguard, take the B4313 Road south east for some 2.5 miles in the direction of Maenclochog and in the village of Llanychaer, proceed up the hill and Hill Side is the first End of Terrace House which is elevated on the right hand side. A "For Sale" Board is erected on site.
