SITUATION

Tan-y-Bryn is situated within two thirds of a mile or so of the picturesque hamlet of Cwm-yr-Eglwys which stands on the North Pembrokeshire Coastline between the Market Town of Fishguard (5 miles west) and the Coastal Town of Newport (3 miles east).

Cwm-yr-Eglwys is renowned for the remains of it's Ancient Church (St Brynach), the Churchyard and the Beach.

Within three quarters of a mile or so by road is the popular village of Dinas Cross which has the benefit of a good Village Store, 2 Public Houses, a Fish & Chip Shop/Takeaway, 2 Chapels, a Church, Petrol Filling Station/Post Office/Store, a Village/Community Hall, Cafe and a Licenced Restaurant at Pwllgwaelod.

Cwm-yr-Eglwys Beach is within a half a mile a mile or so of the Property and also close by are the other well known sandy beaches and coves at Pwllgwaelod, Aberbach, Aberfforest, Aber Rhigian, Parrog, Cwm, Newport Sands, Ceibwr and Poppit Sands.

The Property stands within The Pembrokeshire Coast National Park which is designated an area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and protected accordingly.

Newport being close by has the benefit of a good range of Shops, a Post Office, Primary School, Church, Chapels, Public Houses, Restaurants, Hotels, Cafes, Takeaway's, a Library, Art Galleries, a Memorial/Community Hall, Health Centre and a Dental Surgery. There is a regular Bus Service along the Main A487 Road west to Fishguard, south to Haverfordwest and north east to Cardigan and Aberaeron.

Fishguard, being within a short drive, has the benefit of a good Shopping Centre, together with a wide range of amenities and facilities including Secondary and Primary Schools, Churches, Chapels, a Building Society, Hotels, Public Houses, Restaurants, Cafes, a Post Office, Library, Supermarkets, a Theatre/Cinema and a Leisure Centre.

The County and Market Town of Haverfordwest is some 20 miles or so south had has the benefit of an excellent Shopping Centre together with an extensive range of amenities and facilities including The County Council Offices and The County Hospital at Withybush.

There are good road links along the Main A40 from Fishguard to Haverfordwest and Carmarthen and the M4 to Cardiff and London as well as good rail links from both Fishguard and Haverfordwest to Carmarthen, Cardiff, London Paddington and the rest of the UK.

Tan-y-Bryn is situated within three quarters of a mile or so of the centre of the village of Dinas Cross and the majority of it's amenities.

DIRECTIONS

From Fishguard, take the Main A487 Road east for some 4.5 miles passing through the village of Dinas Cross and after leaving the village, a third of a mile or so further on, take the first turning on the left, signposted to Cwm-yr-Eglwys. Continue on this road for approximately a quarter of a mile or so and Tan-y-Bryn is the first Property adjacent to Cwm-yr-Eglwys Road on the right.. A "For Sale" Board is erected on site.

Alternatively from Cardigan, take the Main A487 Road south west for some 13 miles and on entering the village of Dinas Cross, take the first turning on the right, signposted to Cwm-yr-Eglwys. Follow directions as above.
