Situation

Trecwn is a reasonable sized village which is renowned as being a former Royal Naval Armament Depot which is now known as The Valley. Trecwn has the benefit of a Church at Llanfair (within half a mile of the village), a former Chapel and a former School, both of which have now been converted to residential dwellings.

The other well known village of Letterston is within 3 miles or so and has the benefit of a Mini Market/General Store, Post Office/Butchers Shop, a Primary School, Church, 2 Chapels, a Public House, Petrol Filling Station/Store, Fish & Chip Shop Restaurant/Takeaway, a Memorial/Community Hall, Repair Garage and a Licensed Restaurant/Public House.

Fishguard is some 5 miles or so north west and has the benefit of a good Shopping Centre together with a wide range of amenities and facilities which briefly include Secondary & Primary Schools, Churches, Chapels, a Building Society, Post Office, Library, Hotels, Restaurants, Public Houses, Cafes, Takeaways, a Petrol Filling Station/Store, Repair Garages, Art Galleries, a Cinema/Theatre, Supermarkets and a Leisure Centre.

The North Pembrokeshire Coastline at The Parrog, Goodwick is within 5 miles or so and also close by are the other well known sandy beaches and coves at Pwllcrochan, Abermawr, Aberbach, Abercastle, Aberfelin, Porthgain, Traethllyfn, Abereiddy, Whitesands Bay, Pwllgwaelod, Cwm yr Eglwys and Newport Sands.

The County and Market Town of Haverfordwest is some 13 miles or so south and has the benefit of an excellent Shopping Centre together with an extensive range of amenities and facilities including Secondary & Primary Schools, Churches, Chapels, Banks, Building Societies, a Post Office, Hotels, Restaurants, Public Houses, Cafes, Takeaways, Art Galleries, a Library, Supermarkets, Petrol Filling Stations, a Further Education College, The County Council Offices and The County Hospital at Withybush.

There are good road links along the Main A40 from Fishguard to Haverfordwest, Carmarthen and the M4 to Cardiff and London, as well as good rail links from both Fishguard & Haverfordwest to Carmarthen, Cardiff, London Paddington and the rest of the UK.

Windermere is situated in the heart of the village and is adjacent to the former Mamre Chapel and Chapel House which have now been converted to 2 Dwellings.

Directions

From Fishguard take the Main A40 road south for in excess of 2 miles passing through the village of Sceddau and a mile and a half or so further on take the third turning on the left signposted The Valley Trecwn. Continue on this road for approximately 2 miles and upon reaching Trecwn take the turning on the left (just prior to the gates leading to the former RNAD Depot). Continue on this road for a short distance and follow the road to the left and 100 yards or so further on and Windermere is situated on the right hand side of the road. A 'For Sale' board is erected on site.

Alternatively from Haverfordwest take the Main A40 road north for some 10 miles and passing through the village of Letterston and a mile and a half or so further on take the second turning on the right, signposted The Valley Trecwn. Follow directions as above.
