DESCRIPTION

Leachpool Farm is a four-bedroom farmhouse where the original dwelling was a traditional Pembrokeshire Cottage dating back to the late 19th century. The property has been progressively updated over the years and retains a degree of charm and character. There is a workshop adjacent to the house, within one of the old farm-buildings, and we feel that this has plenty of potential for conversion to provide additional accommodation or perhaps a commercial building such as a gallery or similar, subject to planning.

The property benefits from a large garage and sits in approximately an acre of land and also benefits from a large garage and various garden sheds, with a further 11 acres of land to the rear.

Leachpool Farm stands in grounds that extend to over 1 acre (STM). A sweeping stone driveway provides v=access to the rear and ample car-parking turning space.

Adjoining the house is a former agricultural outbuilding, that is traditionally constructed and is currently used as a Workshop (9.75m x 4.45m) We feel that his outbuilding would be well suited to conversion project, such as additional residential accommodation or perhaps even a gallery or similar, subject to the necessary consents being obtained.

There is also a large garage with up and over style door with personal door leading to the rear garden and three garden sheds. Access to the garage is taken over the access that leads to the properties situated at the rear We understand that the access lane is owned by Leachpool Farm.

The grounds are a particularly attractive feature of the property, being laid mainly to lawns with several shrub borders.

Quite possibly there would be the opportunity of further development within the grounds, again,subject to obtaining planning consent.
