Description/Situation

Nolton Haven is a charming and picturesque coastal village nestled within the breathtaking Pembrokeshire Coast National Park, located in the southwest corner of Wales. This idyllic village sits gracefully on the southern shore of St Brides Bay, offering stunning views over the Atlantic Ocean. Its location is both serene and accessible, lying approximately 8 miles (13 km) to the west of Haverfordwest, the county town of Pembrokeshire, and just 3 miles (5 km) south of the popular Newgale Beach, known for its wide sandy stretch and excellent conditions for water sports.

The Pembrokeshire Coast Path, a renowned walking trail, passes right through Nolton Haven, offering residents and visitors alike the opportunity to enjoy some of the most spectacular coastal scenery in Wales. The path winds along dramatic cliffs, rugged beaches, and secluded coves, making it a haven for nature lovers, walkers, and outdoor enthusiasts. The area is rich in wildlife and natural beauty, making it an ideal destination for those seeking peace and tranquility, as well as a perfect base for exploring the diverse landscapes of the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park.

This delightful 4-bedroom semi-detached bungalow is set within a large plot, offering ample space and privacy. It features off-road parking and a detached double garage, providing convenient storage and vehicle space. The bungalow is situated just a short 0.4-mile walk from the beach, allowing you to easily enjoy the stunning beauty of Nolton Haven's sandy shores and sparkling waters.

While the property is in need of a full update and modernisation it holds tremendous potential. With the right vision and level of investment it can be transformed into a truly magnificent home in a very unique and enviable location. The large detached garage may also provide some options to repurpose.
