Offers In The Region Of £585,000

Appealing residential smallholding extending to 16 acres or thereabouts

Detached 3 bedroom main residence and attached 2 bedroom annexe

Detached 1 bedroom converted garage

Ideally suited for multi generational living or as an investment opportunity

Pleasant countryside location on the outskirts of a popular village

Ideally suited to those looking for a smallholding with significant residential potential

Situation

Enjoying a pleasant setting on the outskirts of the village of Five Roads which is considered to be a very sought after destination, offering two public houses and a very well regarded primary school. Conveniently located to the town of Llanelli, which offers a comprehensive array of educational, recreational and commercial services. The property enjoys a semi-rural location within a collection of properties yet being very accessible to town facilities and the M4 connection at Pont Abraham, enjoying the best of both worlds.

Directions

From the direction of Llanelli, take the B4309 roadway out of the town passing the Stradley Park Hotel on your right. Continue on this road into the village of Five Roads, taking a right hand turning into Heol Horeb, follow this road passing the Waun Wylt public house and the property will be seen shortly on the left hand side.

Description

An appealing residential smallholding extending in total to some 16.63 acres or thereabouts comprising a 3 bedroom main residence, attached 2 bedroom annexe and a detached one bedroom converted garage. We would advise that the main residence and the annexe could be easily interconnected and are ideally suited to those looking for a property that is suitable for multigenerational living or indeed as an investment opportunity. Both offer well proportioned accommodation throughout and the main residence is currently used as a holiday let. Standing within a pleasant semi-rural setting yet within easy reach of village and town facilities. The land is situated to the rear of the residence and is suitable for livestock or equestrian purposes. To fully appreciate what is on offer an early inspection is highly recommended and the property is described in more detail (approx. dimensions):

Garden

A low maintenance gravelled area is seen to the front of the annexe, whilst a paved patio is located to the front of the main residence with a garden gate providing access to the side garden which is mainly laid to lawn. Greenhouse to the rear and a tarmac driveway allows ample parking space and leads to the outbuildings and the land.

Outbuildings

To the rear of the property lies a collection of outbuildings which are ideally suited for storage

Land

Conveniently located to the rear of the residence lies 15.848 acres or thereabouts of land which is laid to permanent pasture and divided into 5 enclosures. From the top land an enviable countryside aspect is seen. We would advise that the land is suitable for both livestock or equestrian purposes. The land is currently farmed in an organic manner and offers an abundance of environmental appeal and could be developed into a fantastic conservation project.

Services

Mains water and electricity together with a private drainage system. Oil fired central heating system.

Tenure: Freehold with vacant possession upon completion

Local Authority: Carmarthenshire County Council

Property Classification: Band D (online enquiry only)

The vendor would consider leaving the furniture and white goods at the main residence subject to separate negotiation

General Remarks

An excellent opportunity to purchase a residential smallholding in a pleasant countryside location yet within easy reach of village and town facilities. To fully appreciate the substantial accommodation that is on offer an early inspection is strongly advised. Ideally suited to those looking for a rural property with land that offers diversification potential.
