Offers In The Region Of £720,000

A traditional Pembrokeshire farmhouse and outbuildings, set in approximately 5 acres altogether, with an adjoining field and paddock (further agricultural land available by negotiation), situated privately down a small minor road within a beautiful rural location just outside the village of Lampeter Velfrey, only a couple of miles from Whitland town and 4 miles from Narberth town. The house is of an excellent size and provides 4 double bedrooms with generous living accommodation which boasts delightful features typical of an old farm house. There is an old stone building adjoining the house which has excellent scope for use as an Annex or extra accommodation (subject to any necessary consents) and might suit a family with an elderly relative etc. There are a good array of mixed traditional and more modern farm outbuildings, some with potential to convert (stp) being ideal for general purpose farming or could be adapted for equestrian uses. The land is of excellent quality, being level to gently sloping, is fenced and has good gated access. This is a wonderful lifestyle opportunity not to be missed.
