

Tyr Gate, St. Clears, SA33 4NF

Offers In The Region Of £550,000

An opportunity to acquire this charming traditional detached house with far reaching rural views, situated in a beautiful South Carmarthenshire location, approximately 2.5 miles from the town of St Clears. The property is set within rolling countryside and boasts a spacious 4 bedroom house with 3 reception rooms, lots of appealing features and character. There is also a large stone L-shaped barn that is ripe for conversion (subject to planning) but as it stands provides excellent storage and animal housing or could be utilised as workshops etc. There is ample off road car parking by way of a large yard, plus there are gardens to both the front and rear. Viewing is highly recommended.

Situation

The property is set off a minor road which is accessed from the A40 itself, conveniently placed near the town of St Clears which has a traditional high street and range of shops/amenities. Other near by towns along to A40 include Carmarthen, with its links onto the M4 corridor, Whitland, Narberth & Haverfordwest, all providing a wide range of shops, services and amenities. The south Carmarthenshire coastline is within roughly 7 miles distance, with the small town of Laugharne being the closest and well known for its lovely scenery across the Carmarthen bay estuary.
