

New Lodge, Talog, SA33 6NZ

Offers In The Region Of £550,000

An excellent smallholding opportunity, comprising a spacious detached 4 bedroom house with just over 18.5 acres, situated in a rural setting, within the small country village of Talog. The property benefits from having a large multi-purpose steel framed shed and 4 good size adjoining grazing fields, plus a small amount of woodland and riverbank fishing rights. The house itself is well proportioned, providing 4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, with a ground floor bedroom and en-suite, plus 2 reception rooms having wood burning stoves and large windows taking advantage of the fine views. This property is offered chain free and would make an ideal family/multi generational home for those with a strong interest in hobby farming/country lifestyle living.

Viewing is recommended to appreciate the views, size of house and extent of land on offer.

Situation

The property is situated up a shared access track in the small rural village of Talog, which has a regular farmers market and coffee mornings, set deep in the heart of the West Carmarthenshire countryside. The market town of Carmarthen, which benefits from an extensive range of facilities, amenities and train station connecting to London via Swansea, is approximately 8 miles distant. St Clears town is approximately 8.8 miles distant and Newcastle Emlyn is approximately 12 miles distant.

Externally

The property is accessed up a private vehicular track which leads across the front of the house and to a good size parking area on the side. The track is shared with only 1 neighbouring property. To the front of the house there is an area of lower land which leads up to and includes a small river with fishing rights. To the side is a patio area. To the rear of the house there is a vehicular track which leads up to a large yard, providing good storage and parking space, (ideal for keeping trailers/horse boxes, machinery equipment etc). Off this yard access is gained into the large Multi Purpose Outbuilding. The track continues up, passing an area of blue bell woods, to a higher level where gated access is gained into the fields. Magnificent far reaching views a simply breath taking from this higher ground.

The Outbuilding

A steel framed constructed multi-purpose building with electric connected. Ideal for a variety of farming or equine uses.

The Land

Please see the attached plan for identification. The land, which amounts to approximately 18.5 acres, mainly comprises 4 stock fenced adjoining fields with connecting gateways and water troughs. The land has been well looked after and grazed on a rotation basis. The current owners have also successfully made their own hay on the land. Access to the land is obtained from either, up the track from the yard and outbuilding, or, there is also roadside gated access. Predominantly the 18.5 acres is mainly all good grazing land, with a small section of woodland, and a lower area of land with river boundary.
