

Llain, Llanycefn, SA66 7XT

Offers In The Region Of £675,000

A fantastic smallholding providing 17.66 acres with a range of excellent outbuildings, situated in a lovely rural setting close to Llanycefn in mid-Pembrokeshire. The detached 3/4 bedroom house has been significantly modernised and updated to provide efficient and tasteful accommodation of a spacious size, being neutrally decorated, naturally bright and enjoying superb country views. The land which surrounds the house and buildings to the front and both sides, is of excellent quality, being highly suitable for equine and general grazing. The outbuildings and yard enjoy a separate gated entrance with internal stables, workshops and various large multi-purpose buildings suitable for housing animals and machinery. There is also a legally compliant residential static caravan, sand school and touring caravan camp site. Viewing is highly recommend to fully appreciate this fine country holding.

Situation

The property is situated on its own, along a minor country lane roughly a quarter of a mile or so from the B4313 Narberth to Maenclochog road, on the periphery of the small settlement of Llanycefn, resting in the heart of the coastal county of Pembrokeshire. The property is within easy reach of all the major towns in the area (Narberth, Fishguard, Haverfordwest, Cardigan) and within some 3 miles or so of the village of Maenclochog, which has a good range of amenities to include local shops, a cafe/restaurant, petrol station, public house and primary school. The foothills of the Preseli Mountains are close by and offer spectacular scenery, walks and pony trekking, forming part of the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park. The main A40 road which is the major trunk road leading to the M4 is about 6.5 miles south, as is the popular town of Narberth, which has the benefit of a traditional shopping high street with independent shops, places to eat/drink, theatre, swimming pool etc.
