

Bwmpwr Farm, Cwmfelin Mynach, SA34 0DG

Offers In The Region Of £800,000

An impressive multiple property holding with excellent quality surrounding land and mature woodland, amounting to just over 35 acres in total, offering a detached traditional 3 bedroom house, a detached holiday cottage and residential static caravan, along with an excellent range of outbuildings and stables. The property is situated on its own, just outside the country village of Cwmfelin Mynach, approximately 6 miles from the popular town of Whitland and the main A40 connecting on to Carmarthen and Narberth. The house provides good sized accommodation with plenty of rustic character and charm, whilst the holiday cottage provides modern and updated accommodation with 1 bedroom and has excellent reviews and income generation. The static caravan has 2 bedrooms and full residential permission, historically let but could well suit a family member/relative etc for independent close-by living. The range of traditional outbuildings and barns offers excellent animal housing and agricultural storage/use for machinery, feed etc, with a number of stables for immediate equine use. There are also beautifully kept ornamental gardens, poly tunnel, vegetable garden and mature woodland with forest cabin, making this a unique and special opportunity not to be missed.

Situation

The holding is situated just outside the village of Cwmfelin Mynach, a small rural village in the heart of the west Carmarthenshire countryside, close to the border with the coastal county of Pembrokeshire which is renowned for its outstanding natural beauty. Approximately 7 miles distant is the small town of Whitland and some 10 miles or so St. Clears and the A40 dual carriageway with M4 road links. Both Whitland and St. Clears offer a good range of local services and facilities that cater for most everyday requirements with the County town of Carmarthen, which offers an extensive array of services and facilities also being within easy reach.
