

Rhydnebwen, Trelech, SA33 6RX

Offers In The Region Of £865,000

A magnificent country property with approximately 27.67 acres, comprising a beautifully restored and spacious 4 bedroom farmhouse with connecting 2 bedroom self contained annex. The property is privately situated with no immediate neighbours, set back off a small minor road within a beautifully scenic area of West Carmarthenshire. The quality and attention to detail throughout the entire house is second to none, having been sympathetically modernised without losing any of its charm. The accommodation is simply spectacular with large spacious rooms full of character and impressive features, ideal for a large family/multi generational living or for creating addition income by utilising the annex as a letting unit. There is an excellent array of sizeable detached stone barns and buildings to include a large workshop, plus agricultural sheds for housing machinery and implements etc. Some of the barns have clear and obvious potential for conversion, subject to planning. The extensive grounds hold mature colourful garden areas with separate vegetable garden, poly tunnels, wild life ponds and a large variety of fruit trees. There's even a secret wooded area with hot tub and sauna. The land is of good quality pasture, ideal for livestock/horses etc and there are 2 small established woodlands of mixed species. The seller has sympathetically improved this property using quality materials that are in keeping with the style and design this character house holds, which simply must be seen to fully appreciate.

Viewing is highly recommended for those looking for a country lifestyle home.

Situation

The property is situated within the rural parish of Trelech, set off a small quiet country road. Trelech village is about 1.5 miles distant from the property and has a small community with village pub and primary schooling. Approximately 10 miles south-east is the large town of Carmarthen which has an extensive choice of shops and services to include supermarkets, train station, hospital etc and easy road links to the M4 corridor. Approximately 6.5 miles north is the town of Newcastle Emlyn and 8 miles south the town of St Clears, both with traditional high streets and good choice of general shops and services. The immediate surrounding area is predominantly agricultural with lush rolling fields and beautiful countryside. An ideal place to raise a family.

Externally

The property enjoys two gated entrance driveways, one leading down to the annex and the other leading to the side and rear of the main house. The driveways are well maintained and lead to a good size parking/turning area found at the back of the house. From here, vehicular access continues further back to an even larger hard standing concreted yard which has ample space for further parking and enjoys ready to use electric power points for caravan/motorhome hook-ups, providing an opportunity potentially for establishing a camp site. There is a good size colourful mature front garden with variety of shrubs, plants and lawn, with further colourful garden borders found to the sides and rear to include entertaining seating areas, fruit tree orchards and pathways leading to wildlife ponds, wildlife areas with a variety of specimen mature trees and a secret chill-out area with hot tub and sauna overlooking the land with countryside views beyond. From the first driveway leading to the annex, the driveway splits with and two further accesses leading to a large vegetable garden/produce growing area with 2 x poly tunnels and extensive growing beds with fruit bushes and fruit trees etc. The other access leads up to an area where there are agricultural sheds and a holding yard.

The Outbuildings

As mentioned, there are an excellent range of traditional well kept stone barns to include:

- Detached Stone Cart House. Located on the gated driveway leading to the annex. This has fantastic potential for conversion, benefitting from drainage, water and power connected and is set on its own away from the main dwellings with its own parking space.
- Detached Workshop. A two storey large building (former milking parlour) which has undergone extensive improvement with a modern slate tiled roof, modern electrics, drainage and water already connected. It has been turned into a large 3 roomed workshop with adjoining Treatment Room, used for massage therapy.
- Detached Whitewashed Stone Barn. Located directly behind the house, across the yard, again with water, electric and drainage connected, with a modern corrugated roof and having excellent potential for conversion.
- Detached Black Barn. Located to the side of the annex. Part wooden clad and exposed stone with a sound modern corrugated roof and power connected, very suitable for conversion.
- Agricultural Sheds. Being located away from the dwelling and stone barns, with separate gated access and a holding yard ideal for livestock and storage of machinery/implements etc. Water and electric connected.

The Land

The entire property is set within 27.67 acres, which includes good quality grazing land to the east, north and western sides of the house and buildings, being fenced and serviced with water troughs, boasting a wildflower meadow with orchids, perfect for bees and other pollinating insects. There are also areas of mature woodland with a variety of native deciduous and evergreen trees, which have created a wonderful habitat for bird life and animals. During the present owners time, they have planted some 10500 trees! Please see the boundary plan for clear identification of all the land.
