A truly sensational 6 double bedroom Victorian terrace house with excellent living/entertaining space on the ground floor and a wonderful private garden which enjoys an open aspect. The double reception on the ground floor has a feature fireplace, shuttered bay window to the front and custom-built cupboards. The rear part of the reception has a Crittall-style glass wall to the elegant hallway. A glass door leads into the full-width kitchen/breakfast room which has a glass roof above the side return and exposed brick wall on one side with the bespoke kitchen units along the opposite wall complete with integrated Gaggenau appliances, a full height integrated wine cellar/fridge and Italian marble topped island and work surfaces. There is also a pretty, wide picture window to the rear of the kitchen onto the garden with a cushioned window seat. The private walled garden is initially paved and then 'London-lawned'. The lower ground floor has been part excavated to provide a generous double bedroom with fully tiled en suite shower room; coat cupboard and utility room. There are 5 double bedrooms, 3 bathrooms and a guest cloakroom on the upper floors including the fabulous principal suite which occupies the first floor and is replete with an abundance of floor to ceiling custom-built wardrobes, dressing area and en suite shower room. This big boned and substantial house of approximately 3075sq ft has a wonderful feel and oozes cool elegance throughout!
