A spacious 2 double bedroom maisonette with good living/entertaining space on the lower ground floor and a charming walled southerly garden. The ground floor has 2 generous double bedrooms, a contemporary bathroom and a study which has French doors with cast iron steps down to garden; the lower ground floor is arranged with the kitchen to the side at the rear of this floor and is part open to the dining area with part conservatory style roof which has tall sliding glass doors onto the garden. The reception area/room is to the front and open to the dining area with the utility/guest WC and excellent storage beyond. The property appears to be in reasonable order throughout and there is ample opportunity to upgrade and refurbish to one's own taste and style.
