Elevated views over the Blackadder River

What a stunning Lodge and plot! This brand new Victory Lakewood lodge has just had both of its UPVC decks fitted. Enjoy the elevated view over the Blackadder river which runs the full length of our award winning park. Huge specification, including two modern bathrooms with showers. Master bedroom with walk in wardrobes. Residential specification. The price includes, siting , plumbing, electric hookup, decking, gas and electric certificates, aerial and two gas bottles. No extras. Low site fees. For a purchase April, site fees for 2023 included. Heating is provided by a gas central heating system with radiators in every room. Double glazing and great insulation will keep you warm on those chilly winter nights , as this dog friendly park has a long 11.5 month season, allowing you to use your holiday home as often as you wish. Of course no holiday park is complete without a good pub (The Blackadder) and a store. Well we are lucky enough to have both within a two minute walk from our entrance. The real feature of the park however is the wonderful Blackadder Water river, which runs centrally through the entire length of the park. Joining up with the Tweed some miles away. The river is home to Brown trout, Otters and Herons. On our doorstep are a multitude of entertainment options. A popular area for fishermen, golfers, mountain bike enthusiasts and of course walkers. A short 40 minute drive to and from Edinburgh means the attractions of this amazing city are not far away.
