An end of terrace Victorian family house with three double bedrooms and accommodation laid out over three floors. Whilst the property has been much loved by the current owner it does require updating and offers very good potential for improvement. Features include high ceilings, cornicing, ceiling rose, sash windows, and character features fireplaces. The property is located moments from the amenities of Hampton Hill High Street and the gates of Royal Bushy Park. Sought-after local schools, bus services, Holly Road recreational playground, Fulwell railway station, and Hampton open air swimming pool are all close by.

An entrance hallway with space for cloaks storage and under stairs storage leads to the front aspect sitting reception room. There is a sash style bay window, character feature fireplace, and custom-made cupboards with shelving into the alcoves. The dining reception room has a door to the garden and leads to the kitchen with fitted units and space for appliances. There is a wall mounted gas central heating boiler, French style doors to the garden, and a shower room with cloakroom W.C.

Stairs lead to the first-floor landing with a sash style window and the front aspect double bedroom. There is a character feature fireplace, wardrobes built-into the alcoves and two sash windows. The rear aspect double bedroom has a built-in wardrobe and a sash window. A door leads to the bathroom and W.C with a bath, vanity sink unit, chrome heated towel rail and a sash window.

Stairs lead to the second-floor landing and the spacious third double bedroom which is currently being used as a reception room. There is a storeroom which has the potential to be an en-suite shower room and W.C.

Outside there is a front garden with shrubs and a dwarf wall. Pedestrian side access leads to patio rear garden with flower and shrub borders and a brick built shed.
