Three-bedroom detached Victorian lodge house | Two elegant reception rooms with period features | Beautifully fitted kitchen | Delightful landscaped gardens and patio areas | Detached garage | unique hexagonal home office

£550,000 | Freehold

A truly unique and charming Victorian lodge house set within beautifully landscaped gardens on Farnborough Road and offers a rare blend of period character and stylish modern updates.

Built in the Gothic Revival style and steeped in history, this three-bedroom detached home is brimming with distinctive architectural features and thoughtful improvements-perfect for those seeking something truly special.

Inside, the property retains much of its original character, including vaulted gables, detailed brickwork, and an impressive arched front door with decorative ironwork. The welcoming hallway leads to two spacious reception rooms, including a beautifully styled dining room with a feature fireplace and a bright dual-aspect living room with French doors opening to the garden. The country-style kitchen features hand-crafted tiled worktops, a butler sink, and a range cooker, all framed by striking checkerboard flooring.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms, each with its own character. The family shower room is finished to a high standard with white metro tiles and contemporary fittings.

Outside, the mature rear garden is a true highlight, offering privacy and tranquillity with lawned areas, a dining patio, and a charming hexagonal brick-built outbuilding, currently used as a home office. A detached garage with power offers additional storage or workshop potential, and there's ample driveway parking to the front.

Walking distance to local parks, Farnborough Sixth Form College and transport links. This exceptional home blends history and charm with modern comfort, offering a rare opportunity to own one of Farnborough's most distinctive period properties.
