Available to rent immediately is this substantial barn conversion, modern throughout whilst maintaining character. The property has everything needed - with ample off road parking and a double garage. Situated in a highly desirable and convenient location on an unadopted road, close to Junction 24 of the M62, the property is easily commutable to nearby business districts and the popular cities of Manchester and Leeds.

Internally, the property comprises: a breathtaking open plan living kitchen diner, with Corian work surfaces and a host of Miele integral appliances, a utility room, a reception room, five double bedrooms, two with en-suites and a house bathroom. There are gardens to the rear, and internal viewings are absolutely recommended to fully appreciate all that this property has to offer - book yours today and don't miss out on this fabulous opportunity!
