Former Barwise Bakery, 38 Main Street, High Bentham, LA2 7HN Offers In The Region Of £260,000

Location

High Bentham is a thriving traditional market town with a range of shops and amenities available including the local auction mart.

High Bentham is ideally placed for access to the Yorkshire Dales, Ingleton Caves and the Lake District.

There is a railway station giving access to Lancaster, Leeds and beyond.

The road network gives access to all local towns and the M6 motorway network.

Description

Substantial well known traditional commercial premises in the heart of High Bentham with extensive refurbished living accommodation above.

Previously trading as a Bakery shop on the ground floor, now trading as a tenanted charity book shop plus tenanted living accommodation above, the premises have been physically split so the living accommodation now has its own separate access from Main Street.

The overall premises offer excellent potential for an investor.
