Description

Lock-Up Garage - Versatile Space with Development Potential (Subject to Planning)

This spacious lock-up garage offers a flexible layout, currently divided into two sections, making it suitable for a variety of uses including vehicle storage, workshop activity, or general storage. The property benefits from existing plumbing for toilet facilities and electrical connections for lighting and power outlets, ensuring convenience and practicality for immediate use.

With ample room to accommodate multiple cars and an open-plan feel, the premises provide generous and adaptable space to suit a range of commercial or private purposes. Located within a mixed-use area surrounded by residential flats and houses, the property may also offer potential for future development or conversion to residential use, subject to the necessary council approvals.

Combining accessibility, functionality, and future potential, this property presents an excellent opportunity for investors, tradespeople, or private owners seeking a secure and versatile building with strong underlying development prospects.
