Description

A much loved and cherished family home individually built and offering plenty of space finished to a high quality. The property sits on one of the most popular roads within the village amongst heritage and modern styled homes. Sitting on the edge of the village it benefits from rural views to the rear and is well connected to the centre of the village with three pubs, church and convenience stores as well as a highly thought of primary school and secondary schools. It is within 1.5 miles of Borough Green with its mainline station to London Charing Cross and Victoria lines.

Offering great kerb appeal with a circular in / out drive and garage for parking, the property gives off great quality to its finish with an Oak framed entrance area leading to the front door. A welcoming entrance hall with engineered Oak floors offers access to a full bathroom to the left and double aspect reception room to the right, currently used as a dining room but could be used as a further bedroom or study. The hallway leads into the centre of the home into a very nice open space that is used as another dining space being close to the kitchen. Stairs lead to the first floor as well as access to all other areas on the ground floor. Lots of light pours into the home with great design. To the right of the central dining hall is a very nicely proportioned Sitting Room that has plenty of windows and French doors to take in the fantastic garden and rural views beyond.

Double doors from the dining hall lead to the modern kitchen with central island ideal for breakfast or to socialise around with its matching stone worksurfaces and shaker style cupboards. French doors lead out to the side of the kitchen again into the garden. A further door leads into the connected garage which benefits from an electric door and has been extended to incorporate a separate utility room.

To the rear of the property is a very nice sized double bedroom with ensuite shower facilities offering similar views of the garden and beyond. Ideal for a family member who does not want the challenge of stairs or use for visitors.

To the first floor is a large galleried landing pouring light into the space with those great outlooks. This could make a great study space or could be partitioned to make a further bedroom or dressing room. Two large ensuite bedrooms, one bath one shower, sit to either end of the house with walk in wardrobe spaces. Both have great outlooks but the one at the back looks over rural fields and garden so it would be my choice of principal bedroom. Centrally is another smaller bedroom with velux style window that could make another great study option.

Externally the house offers a fantastic wrap around garden with mature and formal beds with ornate flowers and shrubs that has been lovingly developed over the years. To the rear of the house the garden looks out over farm land with a gate for access for those who wish to take advantage to walk their dog. A good sized summer house and block paved patio for socialising off the main lounge makes the most of this area.

To the front of the property tucked away in the corner is a good sized lodge currently used by the vendor for here beauty business and has power light and water for those looking to work from home.

I am sure you will agree everything has been considered to meet the modern needs of a family with this home and we can't wait to show you round to discuss how you would use it.
