

Church Road, Newton Flotman

Guide Price £650,000

3 2 2

This charming 3-bedroom detached bungalow, constructed in 1992, is nestled on a sprawling 4-acre plot in the countryside of rural Norfolk. The property offers a perfect blend of modern comfort and rustic tranquility, ideal for those seeking a peaceful retreat. The bungalow offers a perfect blend of modern comfort and rustic features with large windows that invite natural light and offer picturesque views of the surrounding countryside. Inside, the home comprises three generously sized bedrooms, including a master suite with an en-suite bathroom. The other bedrooms are versatile, ideal for family use, guest accommodations, or home office space. The heart of the bungalow is its large fully equipped kitchen, which features ample storage and counter space along with space for table and chairs. The property also includes a utility room, family bathroom, and additional storage solutions throughout. Outside, the extensive 4-acre plot offers endless possibilities for gardening enthusiasts, outdoor activities, or even small-scale farming and mature trees and gardens provide privacy and a connection to nature. Additionally, the property includes a detached double garage and ample parking space, making it practical for modern living. With its combination of rural charm, spacious accommodation, and the potential for further development or customization, this bungalow represents a rare opportunity in a sought-after location in Norfolk.

- Desirable Village
- Double Garage
- Summerhouse
- Ensuite to Master
- Conservatory
- x acre Plot
- Sheds and Outbuildings
- 3 double bedrooms
- x2 Reception Rooms
- Rural Views

